2

Know the Company

Check out their website, their LinkedIn, Google any recent news.

Research is Key

Try out their product or service (if applicable). Learn about your interviewers through their LinkedIn.

3

4

Listening

Listen carefully so you can revert back for questions later, ask clarifying questions to avoid misunderstanding.

Show Interest, Not Desperation

Showcase your interest and prove you're a good fit! Don't beg and plead no matter how much you NEED a job.

5

6

Show Gratitude

A simple thank you and a smile can go a long way. Send a follow up email or pass thanks on to your recruiter if you can!

Give Yourself a Break!

You've done great to get this far! Remember they're selling to you as well and it's just an interview. They want you to be comfortable.
